

GUNSMITHING

PRICING GUIDE

All prices reflect labor only unless otherwise specified. Prices and estimated wait times are subject to change based on project requirements. If additional work is required beyond the listed price or original quote, we will contact you.

We operate on a first-come, first-served basis, and our wait times reflect this. Lead times are educated estimates and not guaranteed. We don't quote hard completion dates.

GUNSMITHING POLICIES AND RELEASE OF LIABILITIES

No completion date can or will be given on any project. However, upon request, an approximation of the estimated time to completion may be given at the discretion of an IIS gunsmith. This estimated time to completion is non-binding and may change at any time due to extenuating factors without any notification to the customer. IIS reserves the right to process and complete work orders in whatever order it sees fit solely based on its own discretion. IIS reserves the right to accept or reject any work order.

All work orders are subject to shop rates/prices as provided in store and at www.iishooting.com/smithing-services. Rates/prices are subject to change.

IIS gunsmiths will provide periodic updates on your project upon request. The customer may inquire as to the status of the work order by email at any time, gunsmithing@iishooting.com. The customer may at any time request the work order be returned prior to completion. At the discretion of the IIS gunsmiths, we will access the proper fee for the work already performed. IIS reserves the right to retain possession of the items on the work order until it has been fully compensated for the work, services, and parts it has provided. Customers will be notified by email and a phone call when the work order is completed.

The Customer acknowledges that they have voluntarily requested IIS to perform activities which may include, and are not limited to, modifications and/or alterations to a firearm which may affect various safety systems. Customer is aware that alterations and/or modifications of guns may be hazardous. Customer is voluntarily requesting that these activities take place with full knowledge of the dangers involved which may include death, dismemberment, or other injuries. By submitting this work order, the customer acknowledges and accepts all associated risks. Customer releases IIS from any and all liability for any alterations or modifications that were made at the customer's request.

Customer is informed, understands, and acknowledges that any alterations and/or modifications requested by the customer to be performed on a firearm, pursuant to the Work Order, may release the Manufacturer from any warranty, or liability for any accident should any occur.

Customer is informed, accepts, and understands by reading and signing this work order, that by requesting that these changes occur, customer is also releasing the gunsmith, both individually and IIS, from any liability should any accident occur because of the work performed by the gunsmith.

Unless other arrangements are made, in writing via email, any completed work order left at IIS for more than 60 days will be considered abandoned and may be sold to cover expenses.

IIS takes all precautions to protect and preserve all firearm finishes and parts, but due to the nature of some work orders, firearms or parts, may be placed in vices, clamped, heated, drilled on, grinded, sanded, removal of material, prided, pressed, exposed to chemicals, or other activities that may inadvertently affect its finishes, cause scratches, dimple the metal, or smudge. IIS and its gunsmiths will not be responsible for these changes due to the working requirements and the priority to perform the work order. If the work requested by the customer has affects to parts or finishes, the work to correct the finishes will be at an extra cost to the customer. IIS will not discount, return, or replace parts that had to undergo any like activities to be installed. (ie.- sight press marks on sights).

I HAVE READ THIS DOCUMENT AND UNDERSTAND IT FULLY. I FURTHER UNDERSTAND THAT BY SIGNING THIS RELEASE, I VOLUNTARY SURRENDER CERTAIN LEGAL RIGHTS.
